Information and Requirements

FRAMED PICTURES &/or CANVASSES must have one large label temporarily attached to front /wrapping (this will be removed and placed onto the screen when hung) A small label with same details is to be attached to the back of the painting.
Cards and prints are welcome but, bring your own stands - table tops will available. Again named and priced.
NB your art maybe for Sale or simply on display for the public.
All help in staging the event is welcome, including being present on the day, even for a short while. Engagement with the public is key to making sales.
Cards and Prints must be individually priced and clearly named.

We will sell work on your behalf if you are not present, there is no fee but a small % charge will be made to cover Sumup fees for sales

Put your name clearly on outside of bubble wrap.

Priced browser pictures must have a small ID label attached onto the front and back.

If you are printing your own labels – do not alter the label size.

Label file attached.

The Curator's decision is final in all matters and may not be challenged.

Artists must self-insure and/or waiver any claim for compensation with respect of loss, damage, vandalism or theft of works.

NB

All care and attention will be taken by the Curator, Gosport Marine Festival Organisers and the Holy Trinity Church.

Please note: time was extremely tight to organise this show, so your understanding and co-operation will be greatly appreciated [come on team!].

In future, the Gosport Marine Festival will feature as large an Art Show as we can organise. We hope that you take part in this event and enjoy the works on show.

Sincerely

Dick Jones : Curator: Gosport Marine Festival Art Show : 2024.
